

Comet Resources Limited

Corporate Governance Statement

Current as at 30 June 2017

Responsibility for Comet Resources Limited ("CRL") corporate governance rests with the board of directors of CRL ("the Board"). This statement describes CRL's position in relation to each of the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council ("Recommendations"). The Recommendations are set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition).

CRL is substantially compliant with the Recommendations and the key elements of CRL's corporate governance framework as at the review date are set out below.

Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

1.1 The role of the Board and Management

The Board's role is to govern the Company rather than to manage it. In governing the Company, the Directors must act in the best interests of the Company as a whole. It is the role of senior management to manage the Company in accordance with the direction and delegations of the Board and the responsibility of the Board to oversee the activities of management in carrying out these delegated duties.

In carrying out its governance role, the main task of the Board is to drive the performance of the Company. The Board must also ensure that the Company complies with all of its contractual, statutory and any other legal obligations, including the requirements of any regulatory body. The Board has the final responsibility for the successful operations of the Company.

In general, the Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to the policies, practices, management and operations of the Company. It is required to do all things that may be necessary to be done in order to carry out the objectives of the Company.

Without intending to limit this general role of the Board, the principal functions and responsibilities of the Board include the following;

- appointment of the Chief Executive Officer / Managing Director and other senior executives and the determination of their terms and conditions including remuneration and termination;
- driving the strategic direction of the Company, ensuring appropriate resources are available to meet objectives and monitoring management's performance;
- reviewing and ratifying systems of risk management and internal compliance and control, codes of conduct and legal compliance;
- approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management and significant acquisitions and divestitures;
- approving and monitoring the budget and the adequacy and integrity of financial and other reporting;
- approving the annual, half yearly and quarterly accounts;
- approving significant changes to the organisational structure;
- approving the issue of any shares, options, equity instruments or other securities in the Company (subject to compliance with the ASX Listing Rules if applicable);
- ensuring a high standard of corporate governance practice and regulatory compliance and promoting ethical and responsible decision making;
- recommending to shareholders the appointment of the external auditor as and when their appointment or re-appointment is required to be approved by them (in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules if applicable); and
- meeting with the external auditor, at their request, without management being present.

To assist the Board carry out its functions, the Company has adopted a Board Charter. A copy is available for inspection on the Company's website.

1.1 The role of the Board and Management (continued)

The Board Charter also sets out the key roles and responsibilities of senior management. Specifically, the Board Charter delegates the day to day management of CRL to the Managing Director. The Managing Director may delegate these responsibilities which include;

- developing business plans, budgets and company strategies for consideration by the Board and to the extent approved by the Board, implementing those strategies;
- operating the business of the Company within the parameters determined by the Board and keeping the Board promptly informed of all developments material to the Company and its business;
- where proposed transactions, commitments or arrangements to be undertaken by management exceed limits authorised by the Board, referring the matter to the Board for consideration and approval;
- identifying and managing operational risks and formulating strategies for managing those risks for consideration by the Board;
- managing the Company's financial and other reporting mechanisms and control and monitoring systems to ensure that they capture all relevant material information on a timely basis and are functioning effectively;
- ensuring that the Board is provided with sufficient information on a timely basis in relation to the Company's business and in particular, in relation to the Company's performance, financial condition, operating results, risks and prospects to enable the Board to discharge its duties; and
- implementing the policies, processes and codes of conduct approved by the Board.

1.2 Appointment and re-election of Board members

The Constitution sets out the process of appointment, retirement and re-election of directors.

Before a person is appointed director or put forward to shareholders as a candidate for election as a director, CRL ensures that appropriate checks are undertaken including checks as to the person's character, experience, education and criminal record.

The Board will provide shareholders with all material information in the possession of CRL relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a person as a director.

1.3 Written agreements

All CRL's directors and senior executives have entered into written appointment agreements with CRL.

1.4 Company Secretary

In accordance with the Board Charter, the decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is to be made or approved by the Board. The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

1.5 Diversity

CRL has adopted a Diversity Policy that includes, but is not limited to, factors such as gender, age, ethnicity and cultural background. A copy of the Diversity Policy is available for inspection on the Company's website.

The Diversity Policy states that the setting of any measurable objectives is the responsibility of the Board. The Board will review measurable objectives, if any, and the progress against the objectives annually.

At the end of the current reporting period, no measurable objectives have been set by the Company given the size and nature of the Company's operations.

As at 30 June 2017, the proportion of women on the Board and in senior management positions was nil (2016: nil). The proportion of women in our overall workforce was nil (2016:nil).

1.6 Board Evaluation

It is the policy of the Board to conduct annual evaluations of its effectiveness and that of individual Directors. Each Directors performance is appraised personally by the Chairman and in a meeting led by another Director, the Chairman's performance is assessed. The objective of this evaluation is to provide best practice corporate governance to the Company given the composition of the Board.

The Directors confirm that the annual evaluation has taken place during the current year and was overseen by the Chairman. The evaluation process of the Chairman was led by the other Non-Executive Director.

1.7 Performance evaluation of senior executives

It is the Company's policy is to conduct annual evaluations of the performance of senior executives. The annual evaluation is conducted by the full Board. The Directors confirm that an evaluation has been undertaken by the Board during the current period.

Principle 2: Structure the board to add value

2.1 Nomination committee

The Company has not established a Nomination Committee as the Board only consists of four (4) members. It is considered that the establishment of a Nomination Committee would not be a more efficient mechanism than the full Board performing the role and responsibilities of the Nomination Committee.

The Company has adopted a Nomination Committee Charter which is available for inspection on the Company's website. The Nomination Committee Charter includes details of the structure and the responsibilities of the Committee. It also states that the Nomination Committee must meet at least once a year. The Board confirm that they have met during the reporting period to undertake the responsibilities of the Nomination Committee.

2.2 Board skills

To add value to the Company the Board has been formed so that it has effective composition, size and commitment to adequately discharge its responsibilities and duties given its current nature, size and scale of operations. Directors are appointed based on the specific skills required by the Company and on their decision-making and judgment skills. The names of the Directors and their qualifications and experience are stated in the Directors' Report contained within the June 2017 Annual Report. A copy of the Annual Report is available for inspection on the Company's website.

2.3 Size and composition of the Board

The Company recognises the importance of Non-Executive Directors and the external perspective and advice that Non-Executive Directors can offer. Mr H Halliday is a Non-Executive Director of the Company. Mr H Halliday is an independent Director as he meets the following criteria for independence adopted by the Company.

An Independent Director is a Non-Executive Director and:

- is not a substantial shareholder of the Company or an officer of, or otherwise associated directly with, a substantial shareholder of the Company;
- within the last three years has not been employed in an executive capacity by the Company or another group member, or been a Director after ceasing to hold any such employment;
- within the last three years has not been a principal of a material professional adviser or a material consultant to the Company or another group member. Or an employee materially associated with the service provided;

The Company's website contains a link to subscribe to receive material announcements electronically. Shareholders are also sent a letter from the Company's share registry which gives them the option of receiving key communications and shareholder materials electronically.

Principle 7: Recognise and manage risk

7.1 Oversight of risk

The Company has not established a Risk Committee as the Board only consists of four (4) members. It is considered that the establishment of a Risk Committee would not be a more efficient mechanism than the full Board performing the role and responsibilities of the Risk Committee.

The Company has adopted an Audit and Risk Committee Charter which is available for inspection on the Company's website. The Audit and Risk Committee Charter includes details of the structure and the responsibilities of the Committee. It also states that the Audit and Risk Committee must meet at least two times a year. The Board confirm that they have met during the reporting period to undertake the responsibilities of the Risk Committee.

A risk management plan has been developed and implemented by Comet. The plan provides a framework for systematically understanding and identifying the types of business risks threatening Comet as whole and specific business activities within the Company. A risk register has been developed through the implementation and review of the risk management plan which has identified material business risk of the Company. The risk register also provides the controls in place to mitigate the material business risks and managements assessment of residual risk.

The board believes that it has a thorough understanding of the Company's key risks and is managing them appropriately. A copy of the company's risk management statement is available from the corporate governance section of the company's website.

The Remuneration Committee Charter includes details of the structure and the responsibilities of the Committee. It also states that the Remuneration Committee must meet at least annually. The Board confirm that they have met during the reporting period to undertake the responsibilities of the Remuneration Committee.

8.2 Executive versus non-executive remuneration

The Company is committed to remunerating its senior executives in a manner that is market-competitive and consistent with best practice as well as supporting the interests of shareholders. Consequently, under the Senior Executive Remuneration Policy the remuneration of senior executive may be comprised of the following:

- fixed salary that is determined from a review of the market and reflects core performance requirements and expectations;
- participation in any share/option scheme with thresholds approved by shareholders;
- statutory superannuation.

By remunerating senior executives through performance and long-term incentive plans in addition to their fixed remuneration the Company aims to align the interests of senior executives with those of shareholders and increase Company performance.

The value of shares and options were they to be granted to senior executives would be calculated using the Black and Scholes method.

The objective behind using this remuneration structure is to drive improved Company performance and thereby increase shareholder value as well as aligning the interests of executives and shareholders.

The Board may use its discretion with respect to the payment of bonuses, stock options and other incentive payments

The current remuneration policies and practices are set out in the Company's Remuneration Report contained within the June 2017 Annual Report which is available for inspection on the Company's website.

8.3 Equity based remuneration

The Company has adopted a Security Trading Policy which is available for inspection on the Company's website.
